AMATEURS ENTERTAIN

Charley's Aunt Set for Thursday and Saturday.

Honolulu has had many amateur theatrical productions, operatic and dramatic, grave and gay, all of which have received a full measure of success and established the records of those participating, as amusement providers of no mean quality. Nearly always, too, such presentations are given for the benefit of some popular institution, a fact which undoubtedly attracts, as well as the popularity of the actors.

Now comes that most laughable of all comedies, "Charley's Aunt," given for the benefit of the Hawaii Yacht Club under the direction of Allan Dunn. Many rehearsals have been given to the perfecting of the productions which take place on Thursday and Saturday evenings of the week, the seat sale opening this morning at Wall, Nichols. The patroness list is headed by the Princess Kawanakoa, always to the fore in these beneficent enterprises and includes Mrs. S. B. Dole, Mrs. H. Noonan, Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Mrs. H. E. Cooper, Mrs. T. W. Hobron, Mrs. Dr. Humphris, Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Jr., Mrs. A. Waterhouse, Mrs. C. W. Macfarlane, Mrs. P. L. Weaver and others.

The actors are more or less well known to the public, all having before earned their laurels as Thespians. Miss Gertrude Hall, the real Charley's Aunt, will be long remembered for her excellent characterizations of "Ruth" in the Pirates and her connection with the lady minstrels. Mrs. E. M. Boyd's ability has been many times tested and found of great intrinsic value to the success of plays and operas, while Miss Gladys Fisher, albeit she has not hitherto essayed very lengthy parts, has long been marked down as a shining amateur possibility by those who make a business of managing these things.

With the male portion of the cast the Hawaii Yacht Club has been equally fortunate. Paymaster Brown, U. S. N., has long ago made his mark on the mainland as a clever amateur, while he is rapidly being appreciated here. He plays Charley, the chum of Jack Nychom, played by Arthur Mackintosh, and the pair will be responsible for much laughter on Thursday evening. Mr. Mackintosh has often delighted local audiences with his genuine sense of humor and his larger opportunity finds him fully competent to make the most of it. Old Spettigue, the cross grained, is played by "Squire" Webster, whose return to Honolulu will be welcomed by dramatic circles who know his versatility. M. H. Webb, remembered for his clever creation in the "Ahkond of Swat," has a prominent role and Mr. J. Harwood, also of the "Ahkond," the "Pirates" and many other entertainments, plays Brasset, an Oxford servant. Allan Dunn, as Lord Babberley, plays the masquerading aunt, and as the whole crowd is a singing as well as an acting one some musical touches are to be expected.

Kaaf's selected orchestra will probably furnish the entracte music and make the short waits more than interesting. The play will be over by 10:30, "short and sweet" being the order of the night.

Three dress rehearsals smooth off the action of the piece tonight, Tuesday and Wednesday at the opera house, where the presentation takes place.

ZAMLOCH THE WONDER-WORKER

Zamloch, the Wizard, not the ball-pitching wizard of the Elks' nine, but his father, is now on the way to making a return visit to Hawaii.

Nine years ago he came to the island and was more than a nine days' wonder the natives particularly enjoying his mystifying performances. He now expects to open a week's engagement at the Orpheum on Saturday evening, the seat sale commencing at the Bergstrom Music Co. on Wednesday morning.

Zamloch's performances, while up to date including the latest features of modern magic, are the more interesting from their originality. Zamloch himself is not a copyist but an inventor. He it was who challenged Hermann when he was in his prime and not only discovered the mysteries of the "Great One's" tricks but showed him some of his own which effectively baffled Hermann's efforts and brought forth his admiring acknowledgement of defeat.

Nor have the year's dimmed the brilliancy of Zamloch's programs. The levitation mystery, the disappearing lady, both are shown while a strong feature lies in the unusual excellence of his assistants. Many are undoubtedly looking forward to Zamloch's return and for these and others the new down town box office of the Orpheum has been established at Bergstrom's.

"PARADOX OF JESUS"

Dr. Scudder Shows the Folly of Religious Intolerance.

Dr. Scudder's sermon was buttressed upon two texts, Luke 10:22 and John 17:3. Among the points made were the following:

"Only through Jesus is real knowledge of God's Fatherhood made possible. With all the religious books of all the ages before us, no one can for a moment doubt that the fulness of this revelation is found in the words and life of the Carpenter of Nazareth.

"In the possibility of knowing God the two texts agree, but when it comes to Jesus Christ they flatly contradict one another. One says, 'No one knoweth who the Son is save the Father,' while the other declares that eternal life consists in knowing Jesus Christ. It is the age-long paradox of Jesus.

"We cannot know the Son. The Christian Church would have been spared centuries of torment if it had only believed this word of Christ's. The Voice of History with its myriad creeds is simply overwhelming as it shouts, 'No one knoweth save the Father.' We see in Jesus the godlike, a unique relation to God which we can find in no one else. Even such bitter enemies of the divinity of Jesus as Strauss and Renan recognize a transcendence in Him. Yet it is idle to dogmatize about this side of the Christ-nature. That has been the mistake of both Trinitarian and Unitarian throughout all the centuries. Let all who call themselves Christian, all who march beneath the banner of the Cross, rally into one great army of sympathy and love at the sound of these blessed words, 'No one knoweth the Son save the Father.' They open before us limitless ages of study and thought. In them there is room for a universe of speculation and guess. Let each man's vision of this divine portrait be shared generously with his brethren but never be interpreted into a God-command of an 'I-am-hollower-than-thou' separatism.

"Though none may know who the Son is, all of us can know Jesus Christ. He may be apprehended historically. This foundation acquaintance is a necessary thing for thinking men. But after all such knowledge is simply the groundwork. It is not the palace in which the soul dwells. That palace is the spiritual apprehension of Jesus the Christ. The distinction between the two kinds of knowledge may be compared to the difference between acquaintance and friendship. You may know the life history of an acquaintance from birth to death but you are totally ignorant of the real man. Your spirits have never met. But you know your friend through and through. Something of this kind, only deeper and sweeter, is what the New Testament means by faith in Christ, what the Savior meant when He said that eternal life is found in knowing Jesus. It is your spirit blending with His. The spirit's intimacy with the Savior is a new life, eternal in its outreach."

VERY ANNOYING

This Hardly Expresses What Honolulu People Say of It.

Good natured people are often irritable.

If you knew the reason, you would not be surprised.

Ever having itching piles?

Not sick enough to go to bed; not well enough to be content.

The constant itching sensation.

Hard to bear; harder to get relief.

Spoils your temper, nearly drives you crazy.

Isn't relief and cure a long-felt want?

You can have relief if you will follow the advice of this gentleman.

Mr. Frank Leibly of 326 S. Main st., Wilkesbarre, Pa., U. S., who says: "It is with much pleasure that I testify to the merits of Doan's Ointment in cases of itching piles. I suffered from that tormenting affliction for the past year. I tried nearly everything that was recommended to me and what I saw advertised, but I could get no relief. Finally I procured Doan's Ointment. After a few applications I was much relieved, and, continuing the treatment, I was soon completely cured. I have felt no signs of that intolerable itching since, and it is four months ago since I used Doan's Ointment. To say that I was delighted is only half expressing my enthusiasm. I recommend this remedy whenever the opportunity is presented. You may publish my statement at any time and I can always be found at 326 S. Main street, and will vouch for the same."
